PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

TERREBONNE PARISH COUNCIL

IN SPECIAL SESSION

OCTOBER 21, 2019

The Council Chairwoman, Arlanda J. Williams, conducted the Special Session Meeting, in the Terrebonne Parish Council Meeting Room for the sole purpose of conducting condemnation hearings.

Following an Invocation, offered by Councilwoman C. Duplantis-Prather and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Councilman A. Marmande, the Minute Clerk called the roll. Upon roll call, Council Members recorded as present were: A. Williams, G. Michel, S. Dryden, C. Duplantis-Prather, D. W. Guidry, Sr., A. Marmande and D. J. Guidry. Councilmen J. Navy and S. Trosclair were recorded as absent. A quorum was declared present.

The Chairwoman read aloud memos from Councilman J. Navy explaining that his absence from tonight’s proceedings is due to his daughter’s surgery and from Councilman S. Trosclair explaining that his absence from tonight’s proceedings is due to a doctor’s appointment.

Code Enforcement Officer II Deon Stewart presented the historical background on the residential structure located at 119 Scott Lane, Houma, LA, owned by James and Sandra Shanklin, stating that there has been no additional improvements made to the structure and it remains in such a condition to be formally declared as dilapidated and dangerous with the following conditions present: it is unsuitable for human habitation. The windows are not maintained in good repair or weather tight condition and may become an attraction for vagrancy and other illegal activity. The permit for this structure has expired. Staff recommends that this structure be condemned.

Ms. Sandra Shanklin, owner of the property located at 119 Scott Lane, explained that since the last hearing she has lost her job and asked the Council for more time to complete the necessary repairs to bring this structure up to code.

Nuisance Abatement Specialist Deon Stewart informed Ms. Shanklin that she has to renew her residential renovation permit before she can make any more repairs to the structure.

Mr. A. Marmande moved, seconded by Mr. G. Michel, “THAT, the Council continue the condemnation proceeding, until January 27, 2020 at 5:30 p.m., on the residential structure located at 119 Scott Lane, Houma, LA, owned by James and Sandra Shanklin.”

Code Enforcement Officer II Deon Stewart presented the historical background on the residential structure located at 1425 Gautreaux Street, Houma, LA, owned by Joe Spencer, stating that the structure continues to be in such condition to be formally declared as dilapidated and dangerous with the following conditions present: The structure appears to have been abandoned and the premises have not been maintained in a clean, safe, secure and sanitary condition, thereby causing a blight problem. The exterior has not been maintained free of weeds in excess of 12 inches and may be a place of rodent harborage and infestation. The exterior surfaces and walls have not been free from deterioration, cracks, breaks, holes and loose and/or rotting materials. The roof and flashing has not been maintained in a sound, tight condition that would prevent the admittance of rain and/or dampness. The windows and/or doors have not been maintained in sound condition, good repair and weather tight. The interior has not been maintained in a good, clean and sanitary condition. This structure may become an attraction for vagrancy and other illegal activity. Staff recommends that this structure be condemned.

Mr. D. J. Guidry moved, seconded by Mr. G. Michel, “THAT, the Council find the residential structure located at 1425 Gautreaux Street, LA, owned by Joe Spencer, per legal description, is in a dilapidated and dangerous condition that endangers the health, safety and welfare of the public. Accordingly, the structure is hereby condemned and the owner is hereby ordered to demolish, and/or remove the structure by November 30, 2019. In default of which the Terrebonne Parish Consolidated Government may proceed to do so, and in accordance therewith, the Parish Administration be authorized to proceed with the bidding process for the demolition and/or removal.”

One certain lot of ground, situated in the City of Houma, Parish of Terrebonne, Louisiana, in that portion thereof known as Deweyville, being known and designated as Lot No. Ten (10), in Block Nine (9), on a plan of subdivision of Deweyville on file in the office of the Clerk of Court, at Houma, Louisiana, bounded westerly by Gautreaux Street, North by Lot Twelve (12), south by lot eight (8), and rear by Lot Nine (9), said lot having a sixty (60’) foot front on the east side of Gautreaux Street, by depth between equal and parallel lines of one hundred twenty (120’) feet; together with all building and improvements thereon, and all rights, ways, privileges and servitudes thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Code Enforcement Officer II Deon Stewart presented the historical background on the residential structure located at 821 Emma Street, Houma, LA, owned by Russell Volter and Mildred Castle Volter stating that the structure continues to be in such condition to be formally declared as dilapidated and dangerous with the following conditions present: The structure appears to have been abandoned and the premises have not been maintained in a clean, safe, secure and sanitary condition, thereby causing a blight problem. The exterior surfaces and walls have not been free from deterioration, cracks, breaks, holes and loose and/or rotting materials. The roof and flashing has not been maintained in a sound, tight condition that would prevent the admittance of rain and/or dampness. The windows and/or doors have not been maintained in sound condition, good repair and weather tight. The interior has not been maintained in a good, clean and sanitary condition. This structure may become an attraction for vagrancy and other illegal activity. The structure may become a place of rodent harborage and infestation. The structure is unsuitable for human habitation. Staff recommends that this structure be condemned.
