Cloth Face Mask Distribution to Terrebonne Parish Residents

Houma, LA – The Terrebonne Parish Consolidated Government, with the assistance of the Parish fire departments, will be distributing free, cloth face masks to the residents of Terrebonne Parish this Friday, September 25, 2020.

95,000 cloth face masks will be distributed to residents of the parish at various store locations, fire stations, the Devon Keller Memorial Center and the Houma-Terrebonne Civic Center beginning at 9AM to 1PM or until supplies last.

“We want to make sure that all residents have an opportunity to have a mask to comply with the mandatory face covering order issued by the Governor Edwards.” said Parish President Gordon Dove. “This will allow the residents of our Parish the opportunity to continue to protect our families, neighbors, co-workers and ourselves from the spread of coronavirus.”

Parish President Dove would like to thank the local fire departments and parish employees for assisting with the distribution of the cloth face masks to the public.

Cloth face masks will be distributed from the following stores beginning Friday morning, September 25th from 9AM to 1PM or until all masks are distributed at each location:

- Rouse’s Supermarket – Prospect Street
- Cannata’s Market – West Main Street
- Lowe’s – Martin Luther King Boulevard
- Walmart – Martin Luther King Boulevard
- Walmart – Grand Caillou Road
- Home Depot – Martin Luther King Boulevard
- Academy Sports and Outdoors – Martin Luther King Boulevard
- Sam’s Club – Martin Luther King Boulevard
